COMMUNITY NEWS

It's a big year! The 250th celebration will be at Jefferson Depot Village as well as in Giddings Park and at the Jefferson Historical Society. As usual, there will be demonstrations of early American crafts at the village and a new emphasis on the First Ladies of the United States Presidents. We open at noon on Saturday July 4th and close at 5 PM. There will be music and free admission. Children can play old-fashioned games and there will be scavenger hunts to do with free candy once completed. Hot dogs and water will be sold as well as a repeat of our famous strawberry shortcake. A pie eating contest will take place and buildings will be open for information on some of our well-known and not so well-known first ladies, and costumed volunteers will describe the buildings in the early American era. Come join us for a peek into the past! And enjoy some food and drink.
